

TDPS Acting Sequence

Theater 10 | Fundamentals of Acting I

Fundamentals of Acting I is the entry level course for the acting sequence and focuses on releasing and cultivating the actor's inherent creativity. Through exercises, improvisation, scenes, and monologues, the actor begins to develop basic techniques designed to stimulate the imagination, increase vocal and physical ability, foster awareness of self and others, discover effective ways to analyze texts, think critically about the craft of acting, and enhance self-confidence and communication skills. This class is the essential beginning of the actor's studies, which will ultimately allow them to effectively engage and explore work from a rich diversity of genres, styles, and backgrounds.

3 UNITS / FALL AND SPRING / 3 OR 4 CLASSES OF 20 / NO PRE-REQUISITE / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Theater 109 | Fundamentals of Acting II

Fundamentals of Acting II continues working with and expands upon basic concepts introduced in THR 10. Through exercises, improvisation, scenes, and monologues, the actor works toward the goal of increasing range, depth, and flexibility. Students work on more complex texts, exploring characters removed from their everyday experience that require more in-depth research and stronger imagination to inhabit.

3 UNITS / FALL & SPRING / 2 CLASSES OF 18 / PRE-REQUISITE: THEATER 10 OR EQUIVALENT / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Theater 110A | Intermediate Acting: Scene Study and Style

While continuing the work begun in Theater 10 and 109, 110A now focuses on the actor's relationship with multiple genres and forms of drama. Increased focus is given to the specific demands and responsibilities of performing with heightened language and the complexities of characterization and style. Emphasis is also given to achieving an understanding of dramatic action, more technical proficiency and clarity, increased emotional availability, and an enriched relationship with text. Through exercises, improvisation, scenes, and monologues, the actor learns how to transform intuitive creativity into performative excellence.

3 UNITS / FALL / 2 CLASSES OF 16 / PRE-REQUISITES: THEATER 10 AND 109 OR EQUIVALENTS / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Theater 110B | Intermediate Acting: The Power of Language

While continuing work begun in Theater 10, 109, and 110A, this course focuses on the actor's relationship with complex language. The course draws upon the world canon, from ancient to contemporary work and including both dramatic and narrative traditions, to consider the unique challenges and rewards of performing elevated text. Characterization, dramatic action, technical proficiency and clarity, attaining emotional availability, and cultivating an enriched relationship with text are also explored. Through exercises, improvisation, scenes, and monologues, the actor learns how to transform intuitive creativity and complex language into performative excellence.

3 UNITS / SPRING / 2 CLASSES OF 16 / PRE-REQUISITES: THEATER 10, 109, AND 110A OR EQUIVALENTS / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Theater 111 | Advanced Acting Studio I

Advanced Acting Studio I begins to finish the acting technique progression that begins with Theater 10. Through scene-work, monologues, and exercises, the actor stretches and strengthens acting techniques, voice, movement, and speech; particular attention is given to character development and style; students also develop classical and contemporary audition material.

3 UNITS / FALL / 1 CLASS OF 14 / PRE-REQUISITES: THEATER 10, 109, 110A, AND 110B OR EQUIVALENTS / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Theater 111 | Advanced Acting Studio II

Advanced Acting Studio II finishes the acting technique progression that begins with Theater 10.

3 UNITS / SPRING / 1 CLASS OF 14 / PRE-REQUISITES: THEATER 10, 109, 110A, 110B, AND 111 OR EQUIVALENTS / AUDITION 1ST DAY

Non-Sequence Courses to Develop Acting Skills

Theater 5 | Public Speaking and Presentation Skills

Students will learn to present themselves and material clearly, confidently, and persuasively, using age-old arts of oral communication. They will learn techniques for overcoming stage fright, developing clear enunciation, finding and using their natural, unaffected vocal register, varying tone and intonation to hold audience interest, controlling pacing, moving with assurance and purpose, using appropriate gestures, and eye contact as well as exploring methods to change behaviors that bar effective communication and structure speeches to maximize persuasiveness.

3 UNITS / FALL / NO AUDITION

Theater 14 | Performance Workshop

Workshops involve performers in collaborative development of new performances; topics may include cross-disciplinary arts, solo performance, language, and movement.

3 UNITS / FALL / NO AUDITION / FULFILLS ONE OF THE LOWER DIVISION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL TDPS MAJORS AND MINORS / NOT PART OF THE ACTING CLASS SEQUENCE

Theater 105 | Movement for Actors

This course explores the kinesthetic relationship of the actor to the physical reality of the stage; focus is given to increasing the individual performer's awareness, range, physical freedom, and artistic expressiveness. The individual actor will work toward developing a grounded relationship to the surrounding environment while having an ability to work from an active center. Throughout the semester, students will explore the principles of ensemble building and rigorous actor training through the study of significant movement-theater artists.

3 UNITS / SPRING / PRE-REQUISITE: THEATER 10 OR 14 / INTERVIEW REQUIRED ON 1ST DAY OF CLASS

Theater 112 | Voice and Speech

Voice and Speech works to strengthen, support, and vary the quality of the natural voice through practice on basic relaxation techniques, breath, resonance, articulation, and projection. The course focuses on pitch, stress, rate, quality, and inflection through a variety of material and uses the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA-narrow transcription) to enhance clarity of speech.

3 UNITS / SPRING / NO PRE-REQUISITE FOR TDPS MAJORS OR MINORS / THEATER 5 PRE-REQUISITE FOR NON-MAJORS OR NON-MINORS
INTERVIEW REQUIRED ON 1ST DAY OF CLASS

Theater 114 | Performance Research Workshop
